

ECHO MEETING

OFFICERS OF GLENDALE DISTRICT C. E. ASSOCIATIONS INSTALLED

At the Glendale Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon a crowd of young people gathered for an Echo Meeting of the Los Angeles County Christian Endeavor Convention which was held in Pomona March 21-23. Several speakers were present from Los Angeles, among them Rev. Vern Morgan who presented the Pocket Testament C. E. Union and Roy E. Creighton, ex-President. Immediately after the Echo Meeting Roy E. Creighton installed the following officers of Glendale District C. E. Union: Miss Ethel Preston, president; Fred Bowman, vice-president; Miss Marjorie Smith, secretary; Joe Maier, treasurer; Miss Nancy St. Clair, quiet hour superintendent.

Prospects are good for the best year Glendale District has ever known and one of the first things planned is to help with the Community Sunrise Easter Service which will be held on the hilltop at the north end of Louise street on Easter morning at 6:30. This service is under the auspices of the young people's societies of Glendale including the Epworth League, B. Y. P. U. and Christian Endeavorers. Everybody is cordially invited.

At the Christian Endeavor Service of the Glendale Presbyterian Church Sunday evening at 6:45, Roy E. Creighton, ex-President of Los Angeles County Christian Endeavor Union, installed the officers of the Junior, Intermediate and Senior societies. A large number were present to witness this installation service which was made very impressive by Mr. Creighton.

LAST WORD FROM PROFESSOR BROOKS

The last word received from Prof. A. M. Brooks, dated March 11th, is that he expected to leave Italy about April 1st, sailing on the "Dante" from Genoa with many others. He writes: "The conditions in Italy as well as in all Europe are much disturbed. What the outcome will be is hard to forecast. This country as well as most of the other nations that participated in the war have millions of men out of employment, and their families are suffering from insufficient food and clothing. There seems to be no remedy for it yet."

CELEBRATION BY CIVIL WAR VETERANS

The anniversary celebration of the close of the Civil War which all the Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic of Southern California are urged to attend, will be an informal picnic affair and will take place at Sycamore Grove April 9th.

NEW YORK STATE PICNIC

The New York State Society of Southern California will hold its annual picnic and reunion all day Saturday, April 19th, in Sycamore Grove, Los Angeles. County registers will be there. Coffee will be served at the noon hour free to all who buy badges. All residents and tourists from New York and all soldier boys invited.

EXTRA SCHOOL WORK

TEACHERS MAY VOTE FOR SESSIONS NEXT WEEK INSTEAD OF SPRING VACATIONS

Trustees of the city schools will hold their regular meeting this week Thursday evening and will then determine what action to take with regard to the spring vacation which under normal conditions would be enjoyed next week. On account of the interruption of school work by the influenza epidemic and the need of extra time in which to make it up, teachers in the city schools have been asked whether they would be willing to teach next week and also a week after the term is supposed to close, without pay, in order to make up the shortage. It will be a secret ballot and on the vote of the teachers will depend the action taken by the trustees, who have no power to force teachers to work beyond the time covered by contracts, but who nevertheless believe that the majority of teachers for the good of the schools will make this sacrifice because of the unusual circumstances. Superintendent White expects to have the vote of the teachers by Thursday evening and to be prepared to report to the Board then.

It is possible that in deference to the sentiment of many residents of Glendale the Friday before Easter will be made a holiday in any event.

LIVELY P.-T. A. SESSION

PROPOSITION TO HAVE AFTERNOON DANCES IN HIGH SCHOOL GYM DEFEATED

In spite of the dash of rain last night which caught many pedestrians unprepared, an excellent audience responded to the invitation to attend the meeting of the High School P.-T. A. at school auditorium. The fact that social activities in the High School were to be the special theme of discussion, including dancing, it was at once evident was the chief cause for so large a gathering, many of those who came not being members of the association or even having children in the school.

Mrs. Wernette, the president of the association, called the meeting to order and presided in a gracious but efficient manner even when placed in an embarrassing position by a challenge of her rulings, and the discussion which constituted the main program of the evening was conducted with courtesy and good feeling for the most part.

In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Oliver, Mrs. Minette Sherman acted as secretary, pro tem.

The report of the treasurer showed total receipts of $23.28 and a balance in the treasury April 1st of $15.38.

George F. Sawyer when called upon for a report of the Employment Bureau for High School students told of what it had accomplished last year and of its efficiency this year up to the time the influenza epidemic broke out and demoralized school work.

He suggested for next year's work that arrangements be made for securing data in regard to students seeking work and from those who have employed them, and also to enable the bureau to follow up placements by letter or other methods and keep office records of same. While this will not cost a great deal, it will entail some expense for which it will be necessary for the association to make provision. He expressed the opinion that in a city the size of Glendale there should be considerable need for work of this kind, and that it should be well advertised through local newspapers and in other ways.

To get it before the association he moved that a committee of five be appointed by the chair to report at the first regular meeting of the High School P.-T. A. next year its findings on the following questions: 1st. "Shall the Bureau be continued?" 2d. If so, to what extent should the scope of the work be enlarged and stabilized? 3d. If enlarged and stabilized, by what plan can it be done?" The motion was seconded and carried.

Prof. Harry Howe, Miss Dorothy Poppy, Mrs. Harry Duey and Mrs. G. D. Roach were then named as a nominating committee to prepare a slate of officers to be voted upon at the next meeting.

Mrs. A. A. Barton announced a spring festival under the general direction of Mrs. John Robert White to be held the latter part of May at the home of Mrs. Ella Richardson for the purpose of providing funds for all the P.-T. A. work of the city.

PRESIDENT CONFERS WITH LLOYD GEORGE

ORDERING OF PRESIDENTIAL TRANSPORT BELIEVED TO INDICATE THAT PEACE IS NEAR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, April 8.—President Wilson was better this morning, and last night was able to dine with Mrs. Wilson.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock he will confer with Lloyd George. The conference is regarded as deeply significant. Lloyd George postponed an address he had planned to make to the newspaper correspondents in order to meet Wilson.

The members of the "Big Four" met this afternoon to discuss reparation. Speeding up the peace treaty was the chief subject at this morning's meeting.

Many still view the action in ordering the transport George Washington to go to France ahead of its schedule as meaning that Wilson is preparing to leave on short notice if there is no decisive action soon, while others believe it means that he is becoming confident that peace is coming sooner than was originally expected.

JAMES M. WATTS

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES OVER HIS REMAINS CONDUCTED BY KNIGHTS TEMPLAR

Very impressive funeral services were held over the body of James M. Watts in the Asylum of Glendale Commandery, Knights Templar, Monday afternoon, which were conducted by Sir C. L. Peckham, Eminent Commander, assisted by Prelate Oscar Von Oven, Grand Chaplain C. R. Norton of the N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R., and by Sir Knights of the Commandery in attendance, the list including: Sir Knights Daniel Campbell, Ezra Parker, William Woods, William S. Rattray, R. V. Hogue, Claud O. Pulliam, Recorder; C. C. Rittenhouse, Clement L. V. Moore, David Crofton, Thomas Ogg, G. U. Moyse, John Melver, William H. La Fountain, P. F. Priaulx.

The casket, draped with the stars and stripes and bearing the hat and plume of the deceased Knight, was placed in the center of the Asylum well to the front and facing the knights there assembled. Grouped around it were many very beautiful floral pieces.

After the knights had passed in and taken the places assigned them, the soloist for the services, Mrs. Hilliard, sang, "I Need Thee Every Hour," and later, "Abide With Me." An eloquent prayer was offered by Rev. C. R. Norton, who was there as the representative of the G. A. R., and then a funeral address in which he paid tribute for himself and his order to a comrade who "in four years of the most severe service offered himself as a living sacrifice on the altar of his country in defense of 'Old Glory.'"

"The deceased made for himself and those associated with him," the preacher declared, "a beautiful home thus recognizing his obligations faithfully and lovingly. He also had a high conception of his obligations as a citizen and when the flag of his country was threatened with destruction by disunion, he offered himself to help preserve it. This order stands for loyalty to the flag and what it represents, and I say to you that fitness for Heaven comes in service that calls for sacrifice. There is still service to be rendered and I am glad that men are recognizing it and struggling to make the world a better place in which to live. I do honor to our brother and comrade who early in his life recognized the principles of which I have spoken. Shall we this afternoon renew our allegiance to those principles for which his life stood? Shall we honor the flag under which he so heroically fought?"

The very beautiful responsive Templar service for the dead was then read by Commander Peckham, also a biography of deceased as follows:

"James M. Watts was born at Burlington, Indiana, June 2, 1839, the son of Andrew and Priscilla Watts. He was educated in the common (Continued on Page 3)

MOTOR TO MT. WILSON

GLENDALE YOUNG PEOPLE VISIT THE PEAK AND ENJOY A FROLIC IN THE SNOW

Four young people of Glendale, Misses Evangeline Huntley and Gladys Justina, Seymour Smith and Dwight Stephenson, motored to Mt. Wilson last Sunday and had a delightful frolic in the snow which they found in drifts five and six feet deep near Strain's Camp. The day was warm and they entirely escaped the wind which swept the valley below. The snow was a surprise as they had not expected such a treat. While there they also saw three does, beautiful creatures who seemed not at all afraid of the visitors. They came down at sunset and found the view spread before them perfectly ravishing. It took slightly more than an hour to make the descent. The road was in fine condition and not crowded by traffic when they were on it.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT

Albert C. Morgan died Monday at the home of his brother-in-law, Rev. W. W. Wyman, in Tejuja, after a long illness. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 10 a. m. in the Pulliam Undertaking Company's parlors. Interment in Inglewood cemetery, where the father and mother of the deceased are buried. Mr. Morgan was born in Michigan, Aug. 4, 1854. He came to California twenty-five years ago and made his home in the state ever since.

HIGH JINKS DAY

STUDENTS AND FACULTY OF GLENDALE HIGH ENJOY A HILARIOUS FROLIC

Glendale High enjoyed a real frolic Friday which the faculty shared and which furnished considerable entertainment for spectators as well as the school. In the spring when sap is flowing and youthful blood mounting, high spirits accumulate and sometimes explode into less innocent channels which considerably demoralize school work. Teachers and parents therefore feel they can well afford to be indulgent and give one day in the year to "High Jinks" so long as the students pursue their work as conscientiously as they did on this occasion.

It was, of course, "dress-up" day with every sort of absurdity in costume permissible so long as it did not reflect discredit on the school or wearer. Such originality was shown and so absurd were the effects of the ensemble contrived that the public felt quite defrauded because it did not have a chance to study them more at leisure. It seemed to be the consensus of opinion that the boys not only kept up their end, but even distanced the girls this year. They were there as Bowery toughs, as Uncle Isaacs, as farmers, hobos, Prof. Howe, well padded out, in a cut-away coat, tile hat and cane, was a typical ward politician on a tour of inspection of his fences. Prof. Moyse was very swell in evening clothes, and Irving Oliver very uncomfortable in his blue and gray uniform of the Cuban War. Most of the women teachers dressed as High School scrubs, in middy suits with their hair done in wonderful ways. There were several "Sis" Hopkins and many old-fashioned girls with trailing skirts, ancient bonnets, some with tightly-drawn shawls, and all with outrageous combinations of colors.

In spite of the distractions which the costuming afforded the boys and girls settled down to work and carried out their regular school program, enjoying an assembly just before noon at which the following program, arranged by Dan Campbell, Secretary of Assemblies, was given: Whistling Solo Eva Green Reading Harriet Barnes Popular Songs by Members of Glee Club—Fred Dodge, Mansford Barnes, Russell Tummell, Sloan Freeman, Arville Williams, Hugh and Dean Bryant, and Marshall Pearson, with banjo and ukulele accompaniment by Dodge and Barnes.

As a concluding number, Clayton Card, Jack Jenkins, Frank Lanterman, Ralph Hutchinson and others paraded across the platform placarded with the words: We Want—You—Tonight—At the Debate.

A grand march of students and faculty through the town was then organized, the parade bringing up at the junction of Broadway and Brand where a big circle was formed and Fred Dodge led in three cheers for Glendale Union High. Returning to the school campus pictures were taken of the parade as a whole and in groups.

Chappell, Mr. Philp's cousin and business associate, but meanwhile they will be looking for a location on the north side of Chicago where they will go to housekeeping by themselves. GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY, APRIL 8, 1918

Greater Glendale Association to bond the city to provide a civic center and park as a memorial to soldiers living and dead who served in camps and at the front in the recent war.

He urged the need of a civic center which would provide wholesome entertainment for the young people of the town, particularly the young men who, he declared, are going to Los Angeles to find amusement, and he earnestly presented the responsibilities of the community to all its members whether they be 15 or 75, declaring that after a young man or woman received a school diploma at the age of seventeen or eighteen years, the city washed its hands of them and did nothing more for them. He outlined the plan for an auditorium seating 2500 persons, for a gym, indoor basketball, tennis and handball courts, baseball field, swimming pool, etc. He stated that the entire cost had been estimated at $200,000.

He also stated that the total annual expense of up-keep had been figured at $8,000 which, with interest and bond retirements would necessitate taxes that would amount to about 25c per $100 of valuation, i. e., the owner of a home worth $2,500 and assessed at $1,000 would be called upon to pay for the up-keep, etc., of civic center and park about $2.50 per year. He figured, if that person had children, it would be much more economical than taking them to the beach or to Brookside Park, as most parents are called upon to do many times during the summer. In other words he estimated, apart from sentimental considerations, it would be a first-class investment for Glendale citizens and the best advertisement Glendale could have.

Dr. Jessie Russell, President of the State Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations, who was present, was called upon and responded briefly saying that the passage by the State Legislature of the bill providing elementary school funds was assured, but that the bill in regard to the inheritance tax law which provided a fund for teachers' retirement would undoubtedly be killed. She paid a high tribute to the efficient work of Superintendent of Instruction Wood and his faithful safeguarding of school interests.

Mrs. G. D. Roach then presented the report of the committee of five appointed to investigate the public sentiment and the practicability of instituting afternoon entertainments for high school students in the gymnasium at which dancing would be alternated with other forms of amusement. She voiced the views of members of the committee selected to represent the different factions as presented at the meeting of the committee last Thursday; stating that the president of the Student Body thought the boys and girls would not care for the afternoon dances, that they would prefer out-door diversion after being released from school and to have their parties in the evening under more favorable conditions than could possibly be provided in the gym which is not suitably equipped for dancing parties. Other members of the committee urged these parties for the benefit of the large numbers of students who have little social life because, by reason of poverty or other impediments, they are unable to attend the high dress parties held in the evening though they would immensely enjoy dancing in an informal way. Still others on the committee were opposed to dancing and did not wish their children introduced to it during their school work. She stated that the faculty were not opposed to it, but did not care to assume any responsibility. They preferred to have such entertainments supervised by the Parent-Teacher Association if established.

When the meeting was thrown open to discussion, about the same diversity which had marked the views of the committee was expressed by those present who responded to the invitation to indicate their opinions. At no stage of the evening was there need to urge the audience to "improve the time" as several times more than one sought the recognition of the chair.

Mrs. Mottern as "minority member" of the committee reinforced Mrs. Roach's report by elaborating her reasons for opposing dancing in the high school and the arguments of the president of the Student Body. When called upon he substantiated what Mrs. Roach and Mrs. Mottern had said.

Mrs. Sherman pleaded for informal dances properly supervised to meet the demand for that kind of amusement which she declared could not be put down. "Whether parents approve or not, their children WILL dance," she declared, and in her estimation it was the duty of the school and the community to provide a place where dancing could be conducted properly and under perfectly safe conditions. Among those who spoke in opposition to dancing were Mrs. Wright, Arthur Brown (principal of a public school in Los Angeles), Rev. Edmonds, Rev. Charles Scott and Rev. Smart. A gentleman who did not announce his name, defended dancing as an innocent amusement as proved by his own experience and observation. Ralph Meeker also warmly defended dancing.

Explanatory speeches were made by Prof. George U. Moyses and Professor Harry Howe, and brief contributions were made by others, but when the vote was taken, which was not until about 11 p. m., the proposition to have dancing parties in the high school gym in the afternoon was defeated by a heavy vote.

Rev. E. H. Willisford of this city addressed the Masonic Lodge at Pasadena Monday evening on themes suggested by his overseas experience.

A. L. Flory, who has been spending winters in California for the past fifteen years, returns today (Tuesday) to his home in Bushnell, Illinois, after having been the guest of E. J. Jackson and J. J. Burke, of South Maryland avenue, this city.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs.
Charles U. Wells will be glad to know that they have returned to Glendale to make their permanent home and are now established at the De Luxe Apartments on Brand and California.
Mr. Wells was recently discharged from service with the rank of Sergeant. During his absence in camp
Mrs. Wells resided in Los Angeles.

The annual convention of the Women's Missionary Societies of this district is being held Tuesday and Wednesday of this week at Pasadena.

P. A. Langvand, of the Bible Institute, Sixth and Hope streets, Los Angeles, accompanied his friend and fellow student, Luther Solt, choir director for the Central Christian Church, to Glendale Sunday evening and assisted with the music. Besides joining in the chorus singing with the choir he and Mr. Solt sang a duet to the air of "Aloha," he accompanying on the guitar. The words breathed a beautiful renunciation of the world's follies to take up a life of Christian service.

Mrs. Adelaide Imler and her son,
Lieutenant Eugene Imler, returned Saturday from a very delightful auto trip via Bouquet Canyon to Selma
where they were the guests of Mr.
and Mrs. T. G. Rasmussen on their big and very valuable fruit ranch on which they have 160 acres of Malaga and Muscat grapes, ten acres in Thompson's Seedless grapes, and ten acres in other fruit. They have a fine ranch home in which are all modern conveniences and the Imlers
found it an exceedingly pleasant place to visit. The son of the house, Ensign Rasmussen, who was recently married, is a special chum of Eugene Imler, who was best man at the wedding.

RECEPTION FOR DR. FRENCH E. OLIVER AND WIFE

The elders, deacons and trustees of the Presbyterian Church, and their wives, upon the invitation of Rev.
and Mrs. Edmonds, gathered at the Manse after service on Monday to meet Dr. and Mrs. French E. Oliver of Pasadena. Dr. Oliver is conducting the Victory Campaign in the Presbyterian Church from now until Easter Sunday.

Informal conversation and talks
occupied the hour, followed by dainty refreshments served by the hostess.
A delightful evening was enjoyed by all who could attend.

"WHERE THE LIGHT FAILED"

Under the "Round the World in a Week" series of meetings which are being held every evening this week in the First Methodist Church of Glendale, Miss Esther Turner, a senior in the University of Southern California, will be the speaker this evening. She is the daughter of a missionary and was born in South America to which country she is planning to return for mission work. Her theme will be "Latin-America Where the Light Failed." She is described as a charming young woman and very gifted as a speaker. Her lecture will begin at 8 o'clock and close at 9 and the pictures she will show were gathered by her father in South America and in Mexico during their residence there. She is very familiar with Mexico and what she has to tell of conditions there will be of great interest.

VICTORY CAMPAIGN

POINTS MADE BY FRENCH OLI-VER IN EVANGELISTIC SERVICE
AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

At the special Victory Campaign
service, conducted by the Evangelist,
French E. Oliver, at the Glendale Presbyterian Church, Monday evening, the preacher took for his text:
"Watch and Pray Lest Ye Enter Into Temptation." Matt. 26-41.

Under this text he made several very strong points which he nailed home to the convictions of his hearers in an effective manner. Said he:
"These words were used at the greatest crisis of the earthly life of Christ
when, because of intense suffering,
mental and spiritual, he felt the absolute need of sympathy and met even from the friends most closely associated with him in Him in His ministry only misunderstanding and lack of appreciation.

"To say that Christ was only a good man shows a poor and inefficient knowledge of Him. Peter was a good man, John was a good man and so we can say of others, but at the great crisis in the history of the world, Christ was the only one who could look up into the Father's face
and say: 'I will redeem the world.'
No man of whatever standard of goodness could have done this.

"Sympathy is at its best when needed; at other times is more of an insult.

"The world today is really resting in the arms of Satan, and drawing nourishment from him, as a babe draws nourishment from the mother.

"Statistics show that 99 per cent.
of church goers are church members showing indifference of the people to the gospel message and the Kingdom of God.

"Statistics show that the average age of female delinquents in L. A.
five years ago, was 16 years, while today the average age has fallen to 13 years, showing neglect of home training in spiritual matters. If the Lord does not get the young people,
the devil will.

"The world with all its jewels and minerals—not equal in value to a human soul, shown by the words and demonstration of Christ.

"God, who created the human life,
the best judge of its value, and He valued it at the life of His Only Begotten Son, Jesus Christ.

"People tempted to put a premium
on the good works of their friends, in effect that these good works will procure for them salvation, thus practically claiming that a few dollars given in charity equal in redeeming value the precious Blood of the Son of God.

"Don't imagine that because your husband keeps out of jail he is on the high road to heaven. Not all jail birds are bad. Paul was a pretty good example of one.

"There's a vast difference between Churchianity and Christianity.
Churchianity says: 'Lord! Lord!' Christianity says: 'Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?'

"A humble, faithful S. S. teacher named Kimball fired a shot at a venture and hit the heart of a youth named Dwight L. Moody.

"A poor exhorter in the Primitive Methodist Church, with no eloquence or pulpit ability, preached on 'Look and Live.' Everyone from a King to a peasant, from a college professor to an ignorant man can look. His view of saving grace led to the conversion of Chas. H. Spurgeon.
